

Seminar/ Retreat Topics

As you consider which topic to choose for your gathering, please know that it will be freshly researched and prayed through so that God may speak uniquely to your group. I am a firm believer that the Lord has a personal and relevant word for each assignment He blesses me with! Each of these topics can be formatted to fit your time schedule, whether a one hour speaking slot or a three-day event. If none of these seem to fit, please let me know your ideas. I write new material all the time. I would love to serve you and your group in whatever way I can.
